

New Offering Winter 2010!

Certificate in Leadership Performance

*A leadership development program that will inspire you!

- Do you feel your leadership skills need to be refined and updated to meet the demands of a changing world and diverse workplace?
- Is now the time for you to reinvent yourself for a career transition?
- Do you crave the opportunity to contemplate where you are, your value system, and the gaps in your leadership competencies?

Together we can envisage a style of organizational leadership that honors the past while addressing the challenges of today's changing demographics and unpredictable economy.

- ◆ As a follow up to our successful leadership development programs developed for forward-thinking organizations, we are now offering this exciting learning experience to the general public.
- ◆ This program provides a unique opportunity to explore current issues and trends in leadership, discuss topics of importance to you through group activities, and develop a network of colleagues in parallel roles in diverse industries and organizations. All classes will be facilitated by skilled and experienced instructors at Dalhousie University College of Continuing Education, conveniently located in downtown Halifax.
